Church Farm Road

Long Acres Caravan Park Steam Rally 29th-30th July

Our Steam Party was again a great success even though the weather made the field too wet to use but the yard around our shed provided plenty of room for the engines.

We would like to thank all the staff of Heacham Holidays Ltd and their helpers who made it a great weekend and also Mark and staff from The Fox & Hounds who allowed the engines to use his car park on Saturday evening for the road run. A very popular event judging by the number of people who went to have a look.

A grand total of £2614 was raised over the two days including a generous donation from The Fox & Hounds.

All the monies raised will be donated to Headway Norfolk & Waveney, the local brain injury association.

Heacham

Air Ambulance

It was exciting to see it coming in over Heacham, wasn't it? But given that it landed in the recreation ground, it was a fair bet that the patient it was coming for would be either a child from the playground or an elderly person from Fridhem. In which case was it really necessary for a crowd of sightseers to gather? And wasn't it going a bit too far for several people to be taking pictures on mobile phones? Don't the sick and the injured, especially children and elderly, deserve a bit of dignity in their suffering? Or are compassion, respect and dignity alien concepts these days?

Heacham

Save our Woodland Hunstanton Road, Heacham

As we all expected, the work being carried out in the woodlands along Hunstanton Road has been in preparation for planning.

Many complaints have been made and many letters of concern have been put into the Heacham Newsletter.

Application no.17/00773/FM has been registered for 30 plus camping huts; also a large 3-bedroom house, car port, stores etc. etc.

The report clearly states that many more trees will be removed to accommodate this plan.

This will be only the start! A year down the line we will see touring caravans move in, then it is mobile homes, until there are no more trees left and it is the next building plot.

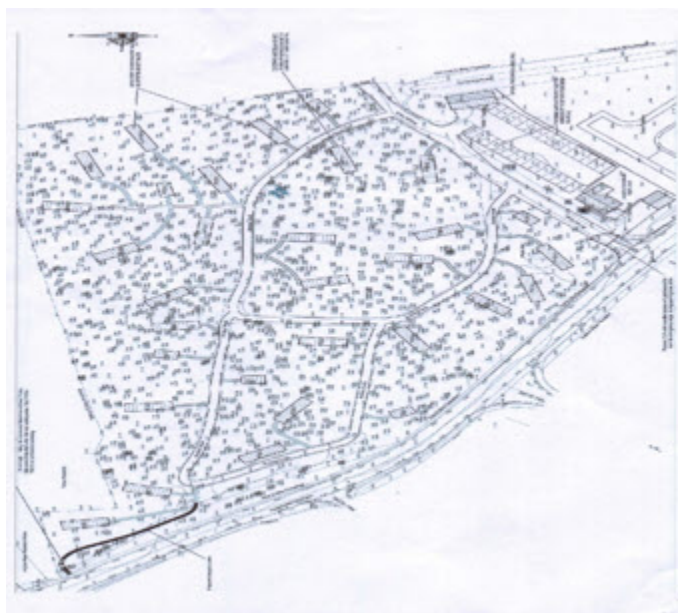

There is very little woodland left in Heacham. Please don't let this one disappear and in its place another housing estate, we have enough as it is. Remember, if this is passed the next one is just around the corner!

The only way to stop this is for all residents to gather together as in previous cases. Voice your concerns now! Go online:-

<http://online.west-norfolk.gov.uk/online-applications/search.do?action=simple&searchType=Application> and object using ref 17/00773/FM, or write to your councillor borough or parish.

Doing it for my little sister

On July 31st, I supported my little sister Jayne by having a sponsored head shave after she had been told that she would lose her hair though intensive chemo treatment for Breast Cancer. Little did I know how big this sponsor trip was going to be? With my daughter Jemma's help, we set up a JUSTGIVING.COM page and had Pen and Cash paper sponsor forms printed up, realizing that not everyone is into the dot com internet way of things (I am one of those!!). It escalated from hoping to raise £1,000 for the Queen Elizabeth Chemo unit, where Jayne is cared for and treated every 3 weeks, to an enormous sum.

Came the day of the dreaded hair appointment. Yes, I was dreading it. But what is a sponsorship if it isn't going to be easy? As Annette at Images cut into that first big chunk, I don't think there was a dry eye in the salon. It was very emotional. Jayne was there to watch, along with my sister, daughters, friend, grandson and grand-daughter. When it was done, as Annette held up her mirror for me to see the back, the small audience sent up a round of applause (I did wonder why they didn't give me a standing ovation, after all I am a thespian darling. Haha!!).

In the 9 weeks of starting this I cannot thank those enough, for donating so generously accompanied with such thoughtful and kind messages. Thank you to our families, friends, acquaintances, total strangers and anonymous donations. I have received wonderful words of hope and encouragement via Royal Mail, social media, telephone calls, emails and also people in the street.

The total so far is a whopping £3,105. It is truly unbelievable! This will not cure Jayne but it will make sure she and lots of other local cancer patients are comfortable, as our wonderful NHS caring chemo staff and volunteers cure her and them.

The support has been overwhelming but no one has supported me more, whether it be a head shave, something I am making, something I am doing or some other brainwave idea, than my husband Dave. Thank you (I love you x). He tells people that it is the first time in over 30 years, that he has been allowed to have the car window open as we drive along the roads because of the wind spoiling my hair style!

Yes, I loved my hair as most women do but I had a choice to have it shaved off. My little sister didn't. I will finish this letter with these words sent to me by my niece:-

Dear Janice

"When a woman starts out life as a young girl their hair becomes an important part of their identity. They love nothing more than to enjoy the experience of having their hair plaited, to be put up in various styles, to wear it straight or curly completed with pretty clips.

"While having fun playing dress up as a young girl perhaps it is not understood or foreseen that these things that people provide such a great deal to you as a woman, can sometimes be taken away from you. Life can be very cruel leaving people to question why this has happened to this person?

"Janice, thank you so much for having your hair taken away from you to honour your nearest and dearest. It really does tug at the heart strings. I hope that you and my mum can go out to the hairdressers one day when you both have lovely long tresses again to celebrate the return of the woman's crowning glory."

With love Sarah x (Tom and Oliver)

Dear Newsletter

Retirement – Thank You

It was said to me many times that when you retire you wonder how you ever found time to go to work! Well having retired on 30th June 2017, I missed the Newsletter deadline of 18th July 2017 for the August edition to write my 'Thank You's'. So better late than never...

After 12 years on the corner of the High Street and Pound Lane, I will miss all the friends who waved as they passed or called in for a chat. I will miss the people who bought their properties from me and became friends and for those who used my services for the Saffron Building Society, until in the Society's wisdom they decided that Agencies were no longer needed; try telling that to those who used this valuable service.

To all my staff over the years who worked so diligently alongside myself through both the good times and the not so good times and their tremendous support when I was not well.

To Pat and Jackie who organised a Retirement 'drop-in' function on the Thursday with tea and cakes and to all those who 'dropped in', and to the great number of retirement cards received from well-wishers.

As I live in the village I will not be too far away and will support all that I can. I am a Director/Trustee of the Heacham Youth & Community Trust Ltd and look forward to extending my duties to a stint in the 'Charity Shop'. I am also involved with the committee in the development of the old Dairy Site and hope to pursue the idea of a new Community building with hall and an open 'Market Square'.

I have no doubt that as word gets around that I am retired requests for my services/help will appear, Can I say No?

Once again to all my many friends in the Village I say 'Thank You'.

CHURCHES TOGETHER IN HEACHAM

God is working His purpose out

At the end of last month and the beginning of this, there were some very high tides. We don't have flood warning sirens any more to warn their warning. Social media and local radio are the main agencies which warn us when the waters of the sea are close to the top of our defences.

We had all seen on our televisions and in our newspapers the power of flood waters earlier in July when heavy rains caused flash floods and devastated areas of, first the village of Coverack in Cornwall, and then the Severn Valley. Many homes are still uninhabitable with families still trying to reorganise their lives and most are looking for someone to blame. Their apparently secure existence had been suddenly revealed to be highly precarious. Excess rain had washed away roads and reduced organised comfortable lives to soggy, smelling chaos with no water and no electricity supply. Material possessions had proved unreliable.

Insurance companies call this an "Act of God". Would God really do such a thing to stir people from their complacency and remind them of His total power over the whole world? Not in a vindictive sense, no, but he did allow these events to occur.

East Anglia is curiously blessed with little or no high ground from which heavy rainfall can drain and cause flooding. To add to the irony the Fens don't flood because they are designed for that purpose! The crops growing in the fields around us were not destroyed. Indeed they were well watered and a hot dry spell in early August allowed for a bumper harvest to be safely gathered.

When we celebrate Harvest Festival this year, as generations have done before us, we thank God for His generous provision for our food. Yes, He created those plants that are essential to our food chain. We can certainly genetically engineer them for bigger and better yields or disease resistance but we cannot create a single leaf. God created every aspect of our lives and He created mankind for a purpose. Our role is to provide companionship for God and to worship Him. Hardly surprising then that if we ignore God and deny His very existence sometimes he allows events to make us think.

Churchyard Wall

You will have noticed that, at last, work has begun on repairing and replacing the churchyard wall. The work will take some months to be completed. We have raised almost enough money to complete the job, and are very grateful for donations received and grants given.

TWO CHICKS AND A JOANNA - This concert (Friday 11th August) by Marian and Grace, was absolutely brilliant and we are so grateful not only to them but also to the 70+ folk who attended. Some £400+ (inc gift Aid) was raised for the churchyard wall fund. Thanks for the food supplied by the West Norfolk pub.

But... we do need some more- if you are able to give or to raise some money to go towards restoring and replacing this essential part of village churchyard, please speak to Penny Taylor at the church office, 17 High Street. 572539.

Morning Prayer in the Celtic Tradition

Every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 9am we meet to pray in the Celtic tradition. This includes bible readings, meditations and time for silent prayer. You would be very welcome to join us.

Happy New Year to you ALL

No, we are not really mad Methodists, but with the return of schools, colleges etc, September is the start of a new Methodist Year, so Happy New Year to you ALL. For us in Heacham, it means a new series of Fellowship and Bible studies, but to prove summer is over, September brings with it Harvest Festival – so Happy Harvest to you.

Harvest Festival

You are invited to join us in celebration of Harvest Festival on Sunday 17th September at 10.30am. The service will be conducted by Minister Rev Steve Oliver and include a talk on the work at the Care Farm at Lakenheath.

Midweek Communion

The September midweek Communion will be on Wednesday 13th September at 10.30am, in the Church Hall conducted by our Minister Rev. Stephen Oliver. This service is not just for Methodists, it is open to all Christians from any denomination or none. Simply, all who love the Lord are welcome.

Bible Study

Having completed our study on Luke's Gospel, we begin a new series of monthly bible studies on Thursday 7th September at 10.40am. Join us to discover the truth of the bible and how it applies to life today. It's usually a lively hour of discussion guided by Minister Rev Steve Oliver.

The Fellowship

Derrick Smith is the first speaker at the new series of the Fellowship, the fortnightly Tuesday afternoon meeting for both men and ladies. That's on Tuesday 5th at 2.45pm. Elizabeth Batstone will be the guest on the 19th.

Hands and Needles

Also meeting on 5th and 19th September at 7.30pm, is the Hands and Needles club which does what it says - anything you can do with hands and needles (sewing, knitting, embroidery etc). This small group looks to welcome new members - just come - 7.30pm in the hall.

Coffee Morning

The September coffee morning will be on Saturday 9th September, 10.00-12.00noon. Kath and David Burkett will provide music on piano and recorder from 11am. There will be the usual bric-a-brac, cakes and bookstall.

Open Door

A reminder that the church has an "open door" every Tuesday from 10.00-12noon when a steward and Minister Rev Steve Oliver will be on hand to talk or pray with you or you can just spend time in quiet with the Lord.

Short Mat Bowls

Short Mat bowls continues at 7.00pm every Friday. Holidaymakers welcome.

RADIO HEACHAM GOSPEL HOUR

The Gospel Hour will now be broadcast regularly from 9pm - 10pm. The station can be picked up on the internet via www.radioheacham.org

The Gospel Hour is a mixture of traditional and modern Christian songs and hymns, prayer, readings and thoughts, but it is your station and I would welcome requests and reasons for that request. Please make your request on either the website or email me on revoliver@radioheacham.org

If you know of anyone who would value a time of quiet reflection and inspirational music please give them the details. The Gospel Hour is another opportunity for the community we live in to hear the Good News of Jesus. I look forward to joining with you.

Hunstanton Catholic Parish

The annual parish BBQ was on Saturday 12th August in the gardens at the Parish Church, Sandringham Road, Hunstanton. It's one of the social occasions that is also a fundraiser for the parish and, as always, was well attended. Thankfully the weather stayed nice too. Thanks as always go to all the volunteers who work so hard in the background to make this and all of our social gatherings successful and enjoyable.

Adults aged 18 to 30 are invited to join a weekend exploring the beauty of living the Consecrated Life in the Twenty-First Century, from 1st to 3rd September at the Dowry House, Walsingham. Call Sr. Carina on 01328 801013 for more information.

Friday evening and Saturday, 15th/16th September. More details from Fr. Henry Whisenant at henry.whisenant@rcdea.org.uk Foodbank supplies are still required. Items can be left in the porches of both churches. Please ensure that all items are well in date. Thank you for your continued support of the scheme.

There is a Fair Trade Stall at St Cecilia's after the 9am Mass on the first Sunday of every month. Please support this very worthwhile cause by buying fair traded goods to support families abroad trying to earn a living. For more information please contact Caroline Brooks on 01553 673069.

All social events will be well publicised in the weekly bulletins and on the website.

Everyone, whether Catholic or not, is welcome to all of our services and social occasions. We have refreshments after the 11am Mass every Sunday and after 10.15am Mass every Wednesday. There are also refreshments after the 9am Mass on the first Sunday of the month at Dersingham. Please come along, you will be most welcome.

Daily Masses will be 10am in the parish church at Hunstanton on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Wednesday mass is usually at 10.15am at St Cecilia's, Dersingham. Sunday Masses are 9am at St Cecilia's, Mountbatten Road, Dersingham and 11am at Parish Church, Sandringham Road, Hunstanton.

BOROUGH COUNCIL REVIEW OF LOCAL PLAN – CALL FOR SITES

The Borough Council of Kings Lynn and West Norfolk have a local plan that aims to guide development in the Borough for the period up to 2026. This plan is in two parts: a Core Strategy document which provides a planning framework; and a Site Allocations and Development Management Policies document (SADMP), which complements the core strategy by providing detailed policies and allocates sites for housing development. In Heacham it details two sites, one off Cheney Hill for at least 60 dwellings, and one to the south of St Mary's Close for at least 6 dwellings. You will be aware the Parish Council and community vehemently opposed the application to increase the dwellings on the Cheney Hill site to 133 resulting in it being turned down. The full Local Plan can be viewed on the Borough Council's website at:

https://www.west-norfolk.gov.uk/downloads/download/414/adopted_plan_documents

The Borough Council have now commenced a review of the local plan, which will bring together the core strategy and the SADMP into one document covering the period to 2036.

This process started in October/November last year with a 'call for sites and policy suggestions' consultation which offered an opportunity for developers, agents, landowners, and other interested parties or individuals to:

- promote sites located within the borough for future development
- suggest locations/areas for special policy treatment
- put forward policy suggestions

By the deadline 14 sites had been put forward for Heacham. Over the next few months these sites will be subject to a Housing & Economic Land Availability Assessment (HELAA). This is one of several technical reports that the Borough Council is required to produce to underpin the Local Plan Review.

The HELAA is a technical assessment of sites which could potentially contribute towards the future supply of housing and employment land within the Borough. As a consequence, the HELAA does not set policy, but provides background evidence on the potential of available sites.

The identification of sites in the HELAA does NOT mean that the sites will be allocated for housing, that planning permission has been given, or that the sites will be developed at this time.

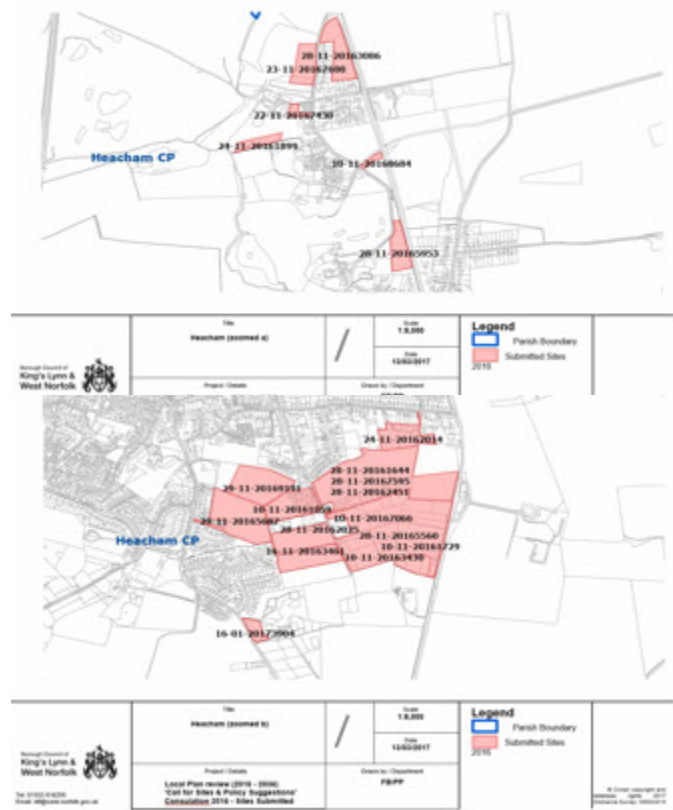

The Heacham sites that are subject for the HELAA are shown on the maps below, but can also be viewed on the Borough Council's website at:

https://www.west-norfolk.gov.uk/info/20091/local_plan/510/local_plan_review_2016-2036

The outcome of the HELAA will be used by the Borough Council to identify the most suitable and sustainable sites for possible development in Heacham, which will then be included in the Draft Local Plan.

A formal consultation on the Draft Plan, including the identified potential development site, or sites for Heacham will be undertaken later this year. However as the consultation period will only be 6 weeks, the Parish Council wanted to make residents aware of the proposals to allow time for the Parish Council to gather opinions and alternative suggestions. If you have any comments about these suggested sites, or alternative suggestions, please e-mail the Parish Clerk at Heachamc@btinternet.com. Please note we are unable to respond individually to these e-mails, but they WILL be considered and used to inform the Parish Council's response to the Borough's formal consultation later this year.

Introduction to the Heacham Neighbourhood Plan

Heacham Parish Council are in the early stages of developing a Neighbourhood Plan for the village. A Neighbourhood Plan is a plan which sets out policies in relation to the development and use of land in the whole or any part of a particular neighbourhood area. This is a community led plan to help guide development, regeneration and conservation. After the plan has been made, it will sit alongside the Borough's Local Plan and carries the same weight in the decision-making process.

The Borough Council has a duty to assist the process by providing access to information, offering advice, making timely decisions at the formal stages and arranging and paying for the examination and referendum. This doesn't mean that the Borough Council write the plan. The government is making more funding available as the direction of travel is that the Local Plan provides strategic policies and strategic allocations. Consequently, this means that the government are really behind Neighbourhood Plans at this point in time.

There are different reasons as to why a Parish Council, Town Council or Neighbourhood Group would undertake a Neighbourhood Plan. One of the reasons is to create a community produced plan. This means that the plan is representing local issues that are not covered by the Borough's Local Plan. Secondly, the plan can create policies to address local issues that are not covered by the Borough Council's Local Plan. Thirdly, the plan becomes part of the statutory development plan for the area. As well as the reasons mentioned above, it can provide the community with greater control over development in their area, although it is important to remember it can't stop development. Lastly, Parishes with a neighbourhood plan will receive 25% of any Community Infrastructure Levy arising from the developments in their area compared to parishes without a neighbourhood plan who will receive 15%. (Capped at £100 per dwelling).

I met with Tracy Raby to discuss what the future holds for the potential Heacham Neighbourhood Plan. She commented: "With the Localism Act 2011, came the ability for town and parish councils to carry out their own Neighbourhood Plans. By creating a Neighbourhood Plan, it brings the community together as it has to be driven by the community itself, although, the Neighbourhood Plans are coordinated by the Parish Council, Town Council or neighbourhood group. Therefore, this enables the community to voice their opinion on how they see the future of Heacham in twenty years' time, based on how it is now before any action is taken.

"If we have a Neighbourhood Plan it gives us much more say in events when areas in Heacham are up for development, in terms of what sort of development is available. This will include factors such as the size of the development area, the type of development, the buildings we have, helping to preserve the character and heritage of the village. Therefore, this will allow us to have a little bit more control on matters arising like this in the future."

The Neighbourhood Plan isn't just about housing, it is also about how the village can attract businesses, what type of businesses, transport and leisure. This will bring the community together to understand everyone's opinion and ideas on the village's future development. The plan can't change how many houses are going to be built, but the group will be able to comment on what sort, where and how they are built. They can also influence what else the community believes should be either preserved or developed in Heacham. To help with this the Heacham Parish Council are looking for five or six members to be part of the working group for the Neighbourhood Plan.

This particular plan is also a great way to get people under 50 years of age involved. This is critical because the village needs younger people who are prepared to be actively involved in the village. Also, the decisions that could be made have more of a long-term effect for them.

On Saturday 21st October, there will be a presentation on the outlines and proposals for the Neighbourhood Plan at Heacham Public Hall, open to the public. Think about ideas beforehand such as, the things you like about Heacham and what improvements could be made. This will help Heacham Parish Council create policies for the Heacham Neighbourhood Plan.

If you are interested in volunteering for the working group, or interested in becoming involved, or just want further information, contact Tracy Raby via email at tracyraby61@gmail.com

Heacham at Night

Did you see any Perseid meteors around the 12th August? I went to the North Norfolk Astronomy Association annual Perseid barbecue and enjoyed the food (excellent meat supplied by Howells) but thick clouds and a threat of rain persuaded me to leave. On return to Heacham the sky was clearer if patchy and I saw six meteors, one fat and bright, two with long trails and three with short ones. Not up to the 100 or so sightings in past years but thin cloud no doubt hid all the faint ones and this thickened just after midnight when the Moon came up.

Hedgehog aficionados: I heard one snuffling in the hedge as I was looking up for meteors. Undoubtedly scores rained down as I looked for the hog which, annoyingly, did not appear.

Last month I promised to tell you about the Great USA solar eclipse but I can't because it's on the 21st August and I am writing this on the 13th. So, hopefully, there will be something in October's edition. However, did you see the small partial eclipse of the Sun from Heacham on the 21st last? If you did please write in to the Newsletter and I will include your comments in the article.

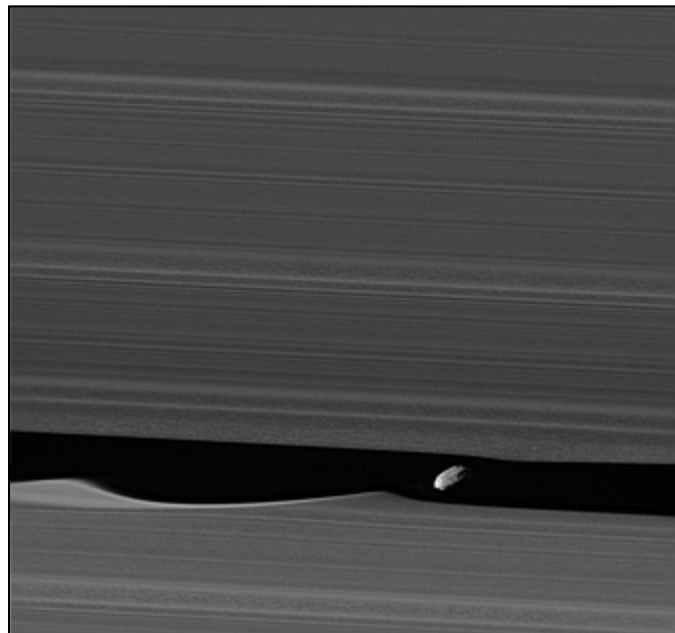

Now to catch up with September: At precisely 21.02 pm on the 22nd autumn officially begins. It is the Autumnal Equinox when the day is 12 hours long and, consequently, so is the night. After that it gets dark earlier and earlier, hooray. If you want to avoid the day slipping away go to the southern hemisphere where spring is starting.

The ringed gas giant, Saturn, is still the planet to catch. I caught it on 10th August when the sky appeared clear after a very sunny day. However, it had rained heavily the day before so there was a lot of moisture in the air. The rings were easily visible but not sharp in the eyepiece. This month, when the sky darkens it will be found SW moving further west as the hour gets later and the month moves on. It is unmistakable as it does not glitter like a star. A telescope, including a good bird spotting scope, will bring out the rings. It will set, vanish into the western murk, about 10.30pm so no need to stay up late. Towards the end of the month, around the 24th to the 28th, Saturn is close to the fat crescent Moon.

Look at Saturn in the first half of the month and imagine the spacecraft Cassini zooming around it and between its rings. After 1.17pm on the 15th Cassini will be no more. It will have been deliberately crashed into Saturn, imaging all the way down (the date is certainly correct, the time is my calculation). Cassini has been a truly remarkable craft and is now 20+ years old, including 7 years to reach Saturn and 13 years exploring the planet, its moons and the rings. The engineers who designed, built and controlled it should receive far more recognition than someone who kicks a ball or pouts on television.

The official reason for destroying Cassini is to avoid any possibility of the craft, with no fuel, colliding with Saturn's moons, particularly Enceladus or Titan; these may harbour primitive life. However, a craft that has been blasted with solar radiation for 20 years is undoubtedly sterile so I think the prospect of getting really close up images and data about Saturn's atmosphere outweigh keeping the craft in a distant orbit.

An image of the wavemaker moon Daphnis within the rings of Saturn taken by Cassini in January this year.

Anyway, look up on the 15th and wave goodbye to Cassini, one of the greatest engineering achievements of the 20th Century.

Other planets in the sky: Jupiter is still with us but moving ever further west ever earlier and it will be lost in the murk very early in the month. The spacecraft Juno is still bobbing towards and away from that planet, protecting itself from the magnetic and radiation belts which have proved to be even stronger than anticipated. Jupiter will be very low in the west as the Sun just sets.

Neptune, the most distant planet is at its closest to us this year on the 5th but will remain a binocular object all month. Look SE from the middle of the month when it will be about 20 degrees above the horizon around 9pm. You are looking for a dim, bluey-green dot. You will be seeing a planet 2.7 billion miles from your eyes. Google: Neptune September 2017, for a sky map. Two pictures of Neptune follow. One is a photograph I took from Heacham, the other is provided by NASA. Which is which?

Venus is brilliant before dawn. Look due east at 6am between about the 15th and the 26th and you will see Mars and Mercury too. Mars is the red dot and swaps positions with Mercury as the month progresses. On the 16th these planets are very close. The crescent Moon joins this trio of planets on the 18th and 19th. You will need a good easterly horizon so you may have to get up a tad early to get to one.

A short article this month as time, too, is short. Just like, soon, the days will be. Hooray again.

Ruffle goes fruit picking

By Rachel Greaves

A large green train at the station did stand,
Driver Ben leaned out, a bag in his hand.
'Eric! Look what I have got for our tea,
Apples! To put in a pie for you and me!'

So over they went to the blackberry patch,
Taking care that the brambles didn't scratch.
Then stopped and looked on in disbelief,
Who'd taken the berries, who was the thief?

I know what else we can add,
Eric thought,
'I've some juicy blackberries – the ripest we'll sort.'
Ripe blackberries – mmm!
Thought Ben with a sigh,
Would make it such a delicious fruit pie!

Where berries should hang a metre from the ground,
Chewed empty stalks were instead to be found.
Eric's and Ben's faces both turned to a frown,
On the rows of missing fruit they looked up and down.

From out of the bushes Ruffle suddenly appeared,
No, surely not him – Ben and Eric then feared.
For there was the thief of the blackberry bush,
Stuck to Ruffle's beard was a deep purple mush!

News from Heacham Fire Station

Hi everyone, it's a brief report from the fire station this month as we prepare for our Open Day which will actually have been and gone by the time this is published! I wonder how it went.....? I'm sure there will be a full report in next month's Newsletter

In the meantime, the busy summer of events has continued, with four of the crew enjoying an afternoon at the Snettisham Fete on 22nd July, then on the 6th August we took our place at the head of the parade for the Heacham Carnival and Fete. We were joined once again by our former appliance from the Norfolk Fire Museum which was crewed by members of the Hunstanton Fire Cadets, although I should perhaps say that it was driven by their leader, our own Guy Tavener. Fire Cadets get to use most of the equipment that we do but driving fire engines is one thing that is left to the adults!

The Carnival was, of course, one of the aspects of village life that Tracey was a big part of and so it was an honour for us to place a tribute to her on the front of our appliance.

There was a fantastic turnout on the field this year and we even had a few enquiries from people about joining the crew. Even if all of these were to bear fruit, we would still be below full strength so we must keep on trying to recruit new members. The number of calls we have attended is still up on the same time last year but, worryingly, so is the number of calls we have been unable to attend through lack of crew.

Please help your fire station to help you if you can.

Well, this report has not been as brief as I intended and not wishing to end on a low note, I'd like to say how wonderful the station looks at the moment thanks to 'Heacham in Bloom'. They supply the buckets and troughs already planted and we just add water..... something that, as firefighters, we are trained to do!

Thanks to the team for making us look so good!

Heacham History Group

Norfolk Village Signs was the topic for our July talk, when Mike Weatherstone took us through the beginnings, types and variety of village signs in Norfolk. He then showed a selection of village and town signs which he had spent 15 months photographing, travelling over 5,000 miles around Norfolk.

The idea for a village sign to commemorate events or show the history or people of a village, began on the royal estate at Sandringham, encouraged by Edward VII and successive monarchs and subsequently taken up by villages and towns throughout England. In Norfolk alone there are over 400 village signs. These range from the familiar large shape made from English oak, with painted and carved items for which the village is renowned, mounted on a post, to wrought iron plaques and the more modern stone, fibreglass or plastic. In fact, one of our parish councillors in the audience was able to inform Mike that Heacham's sign of Pocahontas was made of fibreglass. Locations vary from the centre of the village, the village green, school playgrounds and at Upton and Wrampingham, in the middle of the village pond (deters vandals wonderfully). Many signs show the initials of the W.I. who were often instrumental in getting a village sign made and erected. The jubilees of the W.I. were some of the occasions celebrated on the signs, but a lot of the signs commemorate jubilees or coronations of our sovereigns from George VI's Silver Jubilee, the Queen's Coronation (Brinton Hingham and many others) to her Diamond Jubilee. I for one will certainly look at our village and town signs with renewed interest as I drive around the county.

On September 25th, Gary Rossin, one of the directors of our local "Sedgeford Historical and Archaeological Research Project" (SHARP), will be coming to talk about the dig and its story so far. In over 20 years, the project has unearthed treasures and surprises such as a horse burial, gold coins hidden in a cow bone, the other half of a golden torc (the first half was found in 1965) and a body in an oven.

The meeting will begin at 7.30 pm. As usual the venue is the Old Friends Hall, Sunnyside Close, Heacham, PE31 7DU. Everyone is welcome. Admission £3 (Members £2).

Petanque

Did you know there is a Petanque League in West Norfolk?

Well there is and we play throughout the winter on Sunday mornings. Teams are made up of a minimum of three players of either male, female or mixed membership. There are teams in various locations i.e. Heacham, King's Lynn, Downham, Narborough etc. Matches consist of three singles, three doubles and one treble game.

The league Annual General Meeting will be held in the Heacham Social Club 13th September at 7.30pm. If you want to know more you can email the League Secretary, Bob Partridge - 17robert105@gmail.com - or alternatively give me a ring on 01485 571659.

A friendly league and a very pleasant way to spend a Sunday morning, that's if it's not raining and even it does it's still good fun.

Roger Drinkwater

Chloe Tarbard makes it two championships in a row!

Heacham Manor Golf Club held the annual Junior Championship on Monday 7th August.

With good conditions, scores from the improving juniors were expected to be good. The competition was won by 9-year-old Chloe Tarbard who shot a net 68 to win the championship for the 2nd year in a row ahead of Warren Bates on net 70 who also secured the best gross score with a gross 73.

Chloe now plays off 22 coming down 12 shots since last year's competition!

Chloe Tarbard.

Heacham Carnival 2017

Wow! This year's carnival was bigger and better than ever before.

As usual the traditional parade left from College Drive with all different kinds of floats: Heacham Minors, Radio Heacham, Heacham Judo Club, The Force of Heacham, Bob the Builder, Heacham Youth & Community Trust, Coastguards, Pocahontas (400 years since her death), St Mary's Parish Church, Messy Church, Snettisham Beach Sailing Club, Dave Curtis and Joshy Chilvers on mobility scooters (Grumpy Old People in Training,) and Mandy Cobb with her horses, Bobby and Boyo. Whilst waiting for these floats to arrive at the Heacham Sports field, I also saw Harley Davidson Riders Club of Great Britain Anglia region become a float of the parade. The parade was accompanied by the City of Norwich Brass Band with a street collection in aid of West Norfolk Mind.

The carnival was held on Heacham's sports field, full of competitions and traditional stalls. There were lots of entertainment for the children, such as a bouncy castle, rides, bungee jumps and game stalls. Also, there was plenty of food and drink around the carnival, with stands such as, Thompsons to a Barbeque and other types of refreshments were available throughout the day. The Royal British Legion, Sedgeford Pre-School and Guides Dog Trust were also present at the carnival.

Two of the fire engines from Heacham Fire Station were also part of the carnival parade. But one of the fire engines carried a very special message to the village during the parade and at the carnival itself. This particular fire engine had a banner across the front of the fire engine saying, "Thank you, Tracey, we will never forget you." This was significant because this year was the first carnival since Tracey Swann's death. She loved her village and did everything she could to help and support her community. She was also the former organiser of the Heacham Carnival. Tracey was one of the leading figures in the campaign to save Heacham Fire Station from closure, in which she succeeded.

I spoke to Joseph Rumens, owner of Radio Heacham, He commented, "There is definitely a lot more floats at this year's carnival and of course Radio Heacham is here yet again. I think the Carnival is a great way to bring the community together and our radio station can't wait to come back next year!"

This year, the categories for the winning floats were: Best Family, Best Group, Best Junior Entry, Best Adult Entry and Best Overall. St. Mary's Church in Heacham and Heacham Parish Council have joined together in order to sponsor this event with the prizes for the winners. Norfolk Lavender also provided goody bags for those who took part in the parish float.

This year's results are as follows: Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory (Heacham Judo Club) won the best group prize; The Best Junior Award went to the Rainbows (Pocahontas); The Best Family Award went to the McGinn Family (Bob the Builder); The Best Adult Entry went to Joshy Chilvers (Grumpy Old Woman); the trophy for the best overall float was won by the Guymer family (The Force of Heacham).

Fantastic job Heacham! Looking forward with excitement to Heacham Carnival 2018. (more photos on the web site)

Radio Heacham Monthly Update

Well, it's been a busy month at the station with so many local events coming up or events that have already taken place.

us out with their truck and also Charles Hammond for driving it for us. Also, a HUGE thank you to Ridouts Bakery in Heacham High Street for giving us lots and lots of cakes to hand out while we were travelling through the village.

First of all, we are still looking for help with Children In Need. If you are raising money, still contact us as we can't come to help or visit you.

Secondly, we would like to thank everyone who came and said hello to us at the Heacham Carnival. I was amazed by how many of you knew me from the radio station. We hope you stick by and listen in as much as you can. I would also like to thank Moulam and Horn/JC Hammond Ltd for helping

A few more Thank You's go to my Granny (Winnie Rumens) who spent weeks and weeks on end painting the side boards and making it look as good as it did on the day. And one more Thank You goes to my 2 sisters and cousins and Rev Stephen Oliver who helped to hand out the cakes or sat on the float. Without all of them, it wouldn't have been possible.

Radio Heacham is run on donations from the public. Everyone who is part of the team help out in their spare time and get no pay for their time. Every donation we get does go straight through to the station to help us keep going. If you would like to become part of the team just head over to our website at www.radioheacham.org.uk and click on the 'contact us' tab at the top of the page.

There are many ways you can tune in. You can download the Radio Heacham App that is available from the google play and apple store or download the tune in app and search Radio Heacham. You can also tune in via our website at www.radioheacham.org.uk/listen.

Heacham Table Tennis Club Coaching

After the four very successful coaching sessions held in April, the club were asked to run some more. Fitting in during the Summer was not easy with people on holiday etc. However, two more sessions were arranged for Monday 14th and 21st August, again being held in Heacham Public Hall. With a maximum of 12 people we quickly filled all places, mostly again players from the original sessions, but we were pleased to see some new faces who took the place of people away on holiday who could not attend.

The first session on Monday 14th, again run by TTE coach Steve Goodale, went very well and was enjoyed by everyone. I would like to thank the 'helpers' as without them these sessions could not go ahead. Thanks to those who came early to help set up, for those who not only helped to set up but stayed to be 'controllers'. Also thanks to those who stopped to help clear up which again was done quickly.

IN THE MOOD!
An exhibition of Norfolk Landscapes
by Barbara King
Tuesday 12th to Sunday 17th September 2017
10am to 5pm daily
Ringstead Village Hall
High Street
Ringstead PE36 5 JU

free entry and plenty of parking

Barbara King's annual solo exhibition will take place in September this year in the village of Ringstead where the artist lives. Among the paintings on display will be a collection of new landscapes capturing the ever changing moods of the East Anglian skies. The marsh head at Brancaster is portrayed with ominous blue-black storm clouds building on the horizon; the fields around Ringstead are shrouded the mild mellow mistiness of an early summer morning and the agricultural barns on the old Sculthorpe airbase hang as a backdrop to an autumnal sunset. These places amongst others are employed as subjects to explore the dramatic light and weather of the Norfolk coast and countryside.

You can also follow library events on Facebook at:
www.facebook.com/LynnLibraries - for Lynn, Dersingham and Hunstanton Libraries.

A host of new books are now on offer at Heacham Library, adding the collections of our most popular authors. A new author brought to our attention by a customer is Vince Flynn, a political thriller writer who advised on the TV series 24 and a great read.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The library has three computers with internet access which are provided by KL&WN Borough Council. They are currently free to use by anybody, residents and visitors alike. The Borough Council are in the process of collating information of how the computers are used and have asked us to run a 'Voluntary Computer User Survey'. We are hoping that the results will show that this is a valuable service and resource worth keeping. The survey starts on Monday 4th September, will run for a period of four weeks. Thank you in advance for your support.

Borough Council News

The doubling of the Cheney Hill development was thrown out by the planning committee. There is a belief by many of that body that people should be listened to. The reasons for rejection are robust and correct. However, this may not stop an appeal as, in my limited experience, developers appear to rarely listen to or recognise what is correct or moral or common sense. Neither does this mean an end to large scale development proposals for Heacham; the next batch is about to be decided. At the same time, significant local effort is being made to create a Neighbourhood Plan which will aim to reflect the interests of Heacham residents and can have a significant impact on how development is managed. Look out for notices about that and get involved.

Those of you, likely young, who would like a house are sometimes critical of attempts to limit house building. The term 'affordable homes' appeals and is, as on the Archers (Radio 4), misunderstood. 'Affordable' homes have to be provided on larger housing developments, typically 20 houses on a site of 100. Most will be owned and managed by social landlords. The rent can be about 80% of market rent so it could still be a lot as market rents are far too high. Some 'affordable' houses will be used in shared ownership schemes.

Heacham will get some 'affordable' homes from the 69 houses already given permission at Cheney Hill but it does not mean anyone in Heacham will actually live in any. There is no 'local link' to affordable homes. There is a borough wide housing register and those who are homeless or disabled or living in overcrowded housing who also meet the income criteria are given priority. If no such people want to move to Heacham – after all there are few jobs and they would likely have to travel back to Lynn to get one – then, possibly, the criteria might be 'softened' but it could then mean someone from Hunstanton, for example, accessing the affordable home, not someone from Heacham.

There are houses on 'rural exception sites' which are meant for local people. Heacham has one but when it was built, so I am told, sufficient local demand did not come forward. To get a rural exception site a landowner has to offer cheap land because the houses are not worth so much as 'normal' ones – mortgage lenders don't like them as it can be difficult to sell them on. When a rural exception site was proposed recently for Old Hunstanton, the borough interpreted it as housing for Hunstanton too; that went to appeal and I think Old Hunstanton won but there are still rumblings.

Anyway, if you are young and want a place of your own, go on-line and find out how to qualify for registration and how to apply for properties which become available. But do not assume that 'affordable' houses are affordable or that you have any rights to one in the village because you live here. What are needed are council houses with realistic, controlled, rents but they are not being considered at all in this borough. And remember, to get 50 'affordable' homes around 250 houses have to be built. The 200 market houses will go to anyone with the money. The 50 'affordable' to those who best fit the current council criteria which does not include where you live. Apparently, discriminating by favouring where a person lives would fall foul of anti-discrimination laws. Feel free to complain to your MP.

Presents:

On Saturday 9th September 2017

WHISKY GALORE! (PG)

The inhabitants of a Scottish island try to plunder 50,000 cases of whisky from a nearby stranded ship. There are two problems though; the local minister, a strict Sabbatarian, who will not allow work to take place on a Sunday, and Captain Waggett, the Home Guard officer who wants to stop any looting and searches for the whisky in the islanders' homes afterwards.

This is a remake of the Ealing Studios' classic based on the real events of 1941 when the S.S. Politician was shipwrecked in the Outer Hebrides. Starring Gregor Fisher, Eddie Izzard, Naomi Battrick and James Cosmo.

Venue: Amy Robsart Village Hall,

Syderstone PE31 8SD

Start time: 7.30pm

Advance tickets £3.50

An evening with Michael Flanders and the many faces of Donald Swann

"John Bennett and Clive McCombie are former choral scholars and wonderfully portray the well-known duo Flanders and Swann with able accompaniment on the piano by Gill Smith. The evening also explores the "other" and less well known side of Donald Swann and there is an interval with light refreshments." Tickets are £7.50 each and are available from The Grapes Gallery or on the door.

Brancaster Camera Club

Tuesday 26th September

We start our Autumn programme with an illustrated talk by Allan Livingstone on 'Bugs and Butterflies'. This will be an interesting evening for anyone interested in nature photography & macro work in particular.

We had a successful exhibition in August with a high standard of work and wide variety of subjects.

The winners were: 1st Geoff Lea 'Sunlit Pianist'
2nd John Barker 'Duck Duet'
3rd Noel Robinson 'Lone Walker'

The People's Choice was Geoff Lea's 'Springtide at Thornham'.

We meet in Brancaster Staithe Village Hall at 7.30 pm. Visitors are always welcome. For more information ring Jim Till on 01485 210013 or Wendy Calow on 01553 674725

Single Person Discount claims being reviewed for fraud

A review of council tax single person discount claims is underway to reduce the number of fraudulent and incorrect claims.

This regular review looks at households where council tax Single Person Discount is being claimed to check that claims are genuine, and to remove discounts where households no longer qualify, or where claims have been made fraudulently. The discount is worth a 25 per cent reduction on the Council Tax bill, and fraudulent and incorrect claims directly take money away from other council services.

Customers whose discounts are correct will automatically have their details verified and the discount will continue without any need for the customer to contact the council.

Where there is a query, customers will be contacted by letter for more information. Customers are able to go to the website shown on their letter to verify their details, or can post their confirmation back to the Nottingham address shown. They should respond as quickly as possible as failure to do so may result in the Single Person Discount being removed.

If fraud is discovered, the Single Person Discount will immediately be revoked and the council will consider proceeding with prosecutions and large penalties.

Cllr Brian Long, Leader of the Borough Council of King's Lynn & West Norfolk, commented: "Nearly 30% of all households in the Borough receive the council tax Single Person Discount representing a substantial amount of money. By removing discounts from those who are making fraudulent claims and paying less than they should, the council can ensure money is available for vital services. It is not fair that other tax payers should be subsidising those that are claiming under false pretences".

The borough council uses an experienced supplier to provide a managed service to review Single Person Discount claims using credit reference data, in addition to contacting customers for further information. This approach has been successful for previous reviews.

Cllr Brian Long added: "Whilst it is crucial that we reduce fraudulent claims we would not want to put off people who are entitled to the discount, and would encourage them to apply".

Any adult in the borough who lives alone or with children under 18 may be entitled to claim the Single Person Discount. The discount is not a 'benefit' and it is not means tested so no financial information is needed. The only criteria being that there are no other adults living in the property. An application form is available on the council's website at www.west-norfolk.gov.uk/reduceyourbill or by calling 01553 616200.

Pocahontas Players

Well, with a very successful May production, 'Who Were You With Last Night?' behind us and the summer break over, it's time to start all over again...

During the break, there has been lots of stage work going on. Peter Everingham, Joseph Rumens, Noel Gill, Gary Pearce, Barry Shaw, Ryan Chilvers and Dave Curtis have spent most Tuesday evenings, tidying all electric storage cupboards, making it easy for all Hall users to use these facilities. They have made more space and redressed the stage. Still to be done, is to build a new fold down stage extension. These improvements will give us more space to have a bigger cast.

Starting back on Tuesday September 5th with a video showing of 'Who Were You With Last Night?' - If you didn't see this production and wanted to, please pop along to The Public Hall for 7pm. Everyone welcome. £1 fee will be charged to cover Hall rent.

We officially start back on TUESDAY 12th SEPTEMBER, 7pm where we hope to do a read through of the 2018 Panto Script, which will lead into Auditions, followed by Tuesday night rehearsals. It is hard work but fun! Please join us and see what you think. Whether you tread the boards or are part of the stage crew or production crew or advertising or just handy with the stage broom, you are ALL very welcome.

If you feel that you can commit your Tuesday evenings (more evenings towards the lead up of the production) and you are aged from 13 to whatever age(?), weekly SUBS are £1.50 with your first week being free, to give you a little taster of what our Drama Group is all about. We have a mid-rehearsal Tea and Chocolate Break, with Jimma Race's Tuck Shop.

Do hope to see you. With thanks from

Relax and Unwind for Summer at The Wellbeing People

Here at the The Wellbeing People we provide tailored 1:1 sessions in Hypnotherapy and Reflexology to help you relax, re-balance and be free from issues that may be holding you back.

- Reflexology Is deeply relaxing - by skilfully massaging the reflex areas of the feet, reflexology can influence other vital areas of the body. It de-stresses, re-energises and re-balances the body, creating a unique feeling of wellbeing.
- Hypnotherapy - Are there areas of your life holding you back? Do you want change? We all lead busy lives but when we're constantly feeling stressed and pushed to our limits maybe it's time to make some changes. Hypnotherapy works with the subconscious mind to help you push past self-limiting issues, leaving you free to live the life you really want!

HEACHAM PARISH COUNCIL NOTICEBOARD

PARISH COUNCIL MEETINGS IN BRIEF

Cheney Hill Development: The revised application to build a further 64 dwellings was rejected by the Borough Council planning committee on 31 July, with only two Councillors voting in favour. The Chairman of the Parish Council thanks all residents of the village who attended the meeting to object to this overdevelopment of the Cheney Hill site.

Grass cutting: The Parish Council continues to receive complaints about the standard and frequency of the Borough Council's grass cutting in the village. The Council is looking into the feasibility of paying for additional cutting, but in the meantime urges residents to make the Borough Council aware of any grass cutting issues by contacting them on 0800 253 2687 or cleanup@west-norfolk.gov.uk.

Hunstanton Road bus stops: Councillors met with Lynx Buses and Highway officers and it was suggested verbally, that if it was safe to do so, Lynx drivers, if asked or hailed, would stop for passengers by Pinnacle Cottages, this though is not the preferred bus stop. The official bus stop would be placed opposite Caley House. The stop for Hunstanton bound buses would remain beside the Heacham Declaration plaque.

Hunstanton Road Woodland: The Council has put in an objection to the planning application for the installation of glamping holiday pods in the woodland. Full details of the development are available under Planning on BCKLWN's website www.west-norfolk.gov.uk the reference number is 17/00773/FM.

The next Full Council meeting will be held on Tuesday 19 September at 7.00pm at the Parish Council Office.

Heacham Carnival Parade and Fete 2017

What a lovely day; the sun shone, the band played - thanks to The City of Norwich Brass Band (especially as they had never marched before), the number and variety of floats was fantastic and it was great to see the horses taking part. Well done to all the entrants - you made the judging difficult but the winners for 2017, who received a trophy and £25 each, were: Best Family: 'Bob the Builder' - McGinn Construction; Best Group: 'Willy Wonka' - Heacham Judo Club; Best Junior: 'Pocahontas' - Heacham Rainbows; Best Adult: 'Grumpy Old Woman (in training)' - Josh Chilvers. The Overall Winner, scooping the £100 prize and a trophy was 'The Force Heacham' - Ian Guymer and family. Thank you to everybody who helped with the Carnival Parade in whatever way but a special thank you must go to St Mary's Church, Heacham for co-sponsoring the prizes this year, to Norfolk Lavender for generously providing goody bags for those aboard the Parish Council's float and to Ed Hammond and Moulam and Horn who made it happen! It was wonderful to see so many people along the route, cheering on the Parade, and we hope that you all enjoyed the event as much as we did. Well, Carnival 2017 is over but remember it is never too early to start planning a float for next year!

NEW PARISH COUNCILLOR KEVIN PATIENCE

The second of the two new Parish Councillors co-opted in June is Kev Patience, who is married with grown up children. He has lived in Heacham for over 30 years and works as a postman in Hunstanton. He has worked for Royal Mail for 28 years, enjoys village life and has helped out at the carnival in Heacham and Hunstanton with Royal Mail and Postman Pat.

He also helped as coach/manager with Heacham minors starting with ages under 7 through to under 16.

He is currently helping to run the Heacham Horse Show which is now in its 15th year and is now looking forward to what the future brings with the Parish Council.

DOGS AT THE SALTINGS

Would dog owners please note that the Saltings is a nature reserve and that, while the Parish Council is happy for dogs to be walked on the site, the notices requiring dogs to be on a lead should be observed. Please be advised that the Parish Council will take action against dog owners who do not comply.

LODGE ROAD BUS STOP

The Parish Council and Norfolk County Council have jointly funded the provision of hard standing at the Lodge Road bus stop beside Brays Pit. The work has recently been completed by NCC Highways, with the Parish and County sharing the cost of £1239.
